“Poetic text, . . . arresting artwork . . .
 perfect for children afraid of thunderstorms.” —Booklist.

“All the Blue Moons at the Wallace Hotel is a book so full of joy and beauty that one wants to read and reread it, simply for the pleasure of revisiting this invented world. That, to me, is the sign of a true children's classic.” —The Boston Globe

“Wallace is one of the most original and entertaining children in modern literature.”

—The Philadelphia Inquirer
